Excursionists Leave.

Two hundred and twenty-six excursionists left for Hilo and the volcano yesterday afternoon at 3:30 on the Inter-Island steamship Mauna Kea. That the vessel was loaded to the guards goes without saying. It was a much beleaguered and an enthusiastic one and there is little doubt but that last night was a merry one crossing the channels, particularly with James Wilder aboard to entertain in his own inimitable way. As every passenger carried a suit case and in some cases two, and as some of these cases were heavily loaded, it is understood that there will be no lack of fun. Part of the crowd will attend the races in Hilo and a portion will make the volcano trip. The Mauna Kea starts for home at 4 tomorrow afternoon arriving here Tuesday morning.

Chiyo Maru Here Monday.

A wireless message from the Japanese liner Chiyo Maru to Hackfeld & Co., agents, yesterday gave information that the vessel will arrive here Monday morning. This is good news as it will give the passengers an opportunity to witness the Fourth of July military parade.

Sheridan Here Monday.

No wireless message was received yesterday by the army quartermaster department from the Sheridan en route from Manila to Honolulu. The troopship is expected here Monday morning. Arrangements may be made to have the 26th Infantry, on board the transport, participate in the Fourth of July parade, and if a decision is reached to do so, a wireless message may be sent to Colonel Booth asking if he will take part.

Shipping Notes.

The Pleiades of the A-H line will leave Puget Sound for Honolulu on July 8.

The Massachusetts, already in berth, will sail for Kauai to get a portion of her sugar cargo for the Coast. The American-Hawaiian steamship Missouri arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco with a big load of freight.

HE WAS WALKING ALONG STATE STREET.

Chicago, when a sudden gust relieved him of his straw hat. He turned, gave chase, and after a lengthy run at full speed possessed upon it. At the same moment a stranger (also perspiring and almost breathless) took it from him and thanked him kindly. "But it's my hat," said he. "No," said the other, "yours is hanging down your back on a string."
